Heroes

The Librarian of Basra: A True Story from Iraq

Winter, Jeanette

“In a war-stricken country where civilians -especially women- have little power, this true story about a librarian’s struggle to save her community’s priceless collection of books reminds us all how, throughout the world, the love of literature and the respect for knowledge know no boundaries.”

Alia’s Mission: Saving the Books of Iraq

Stamaty, Mark Alan

Tells the story of Alia Muhammad Baker, the chief librarian of Basra’s Central Library, in an engaging graphic novel format.

Ten Amazing People and How They Changed the World

Shaw, Maureen $24.99

With profiles of Malcolm X, Gandhi, Mother Teresa, Thich Nhat Hanh, Desmond Tutu, Dorothy Day, Black Elk, Janusz Korczak, Martin Luther King Jr. and Albert Schweitzer.

Heroes and She-Roes: Poems of Amazing and Everyday Heroes

Lewis, Patrick J. $25.00

Hardcover picture book with poems celebrating a wide range of people from teachers, firefighters and immigrants to such noted worldchangers as Helen Keller, Joan of Arc, Iqbal Masih and Rosa Parks.

The Carpet Boy’s Gift

Shea, Pegi Deitz $24.95

“This fictional story honors the legacy of Iqbal Masih, a real boy who had escaped from a factory. Resources at the end of the story lead to more information about child labor issues and encourage children to support companies that work to make the world a better place for all.”
